HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE:

First off, remember, these prayers are NOT magic formulas. They are faith-filled prayers prayed in the name of Jesus Christ to your heavenly Father in heaven, who so happens to care deeply about your children (Matthew 7:9-11).

- The prayer included in each week's blog post is to be prayed for your kid(s) at least once each day this week.
- You can kneel/sit/stand with your kid(s) and read the prayer out loud, or you can pray privately on your own for them.
- Feel free to expand on each prayer as the Holy Spirit brings to your mind the specific needs of your child. If you have a son and the week's prayer is for a girl, feel free to make the adjustment to fit their gender.
- This PRAYER RESULTS WORKSHEET is to be filled out at the beginning of the week (Day 1) so you can set some prayerful goals for what you want God to do in your kid's lives. Day 5 and Day 7 provide you with additional space to track their progress.
- The 7 Bible verses are an additional resource to help you pray the theme of each week over your kid's lives.

As you pray over your children this week, I pray that the God of hope fills you with great joy and peace as you trust in Him!

DAY 1 (MONDAY):

Assuming that your kid(s), like most, could use a little more of a generous spirit in their lives, describe specifically how you would like God to shape them into more of a giving person. You know your kid best; in what way can they become more caring?

E.G: "God, I pray you help Jacob become more attentive to his siblings when they're hurting or in pain, and that he starts going out of his way to make sure they're feeling better instead of just walking by them."

DAY 5 (FRIDAY):

In what ways have you observed your kid(s) become more caring and generous in the last few days?

DAY 7 (SUNDAY):

What is different today than when you began praying for your kid(s) on Monday?
How has God answered your prayers for generosity in your kid's life?

7 BIBLE PASSAGES ABOUT GENEROSITY THAT YOU CAN PRAY FOR YOUR KID(S) EACH DAY THIS WEEK

Acts 20:35 In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

Hebrews 13:16 And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

Luke 6:38 Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”

Luke 21:1-4 As Jesus looked up, he saw the rich putting their gifts into the temple treasury. He also saw a poor widow put in two very small copper coins. “Truly I tell you,” he said, “this poor widow has put in more than all the others. All these people gave their gifts out of their wealth; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on.”

2 Corinthians 9:6-8 Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

Proverbs 11:25 A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.

1 John 3:16-18 This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.
