HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE:

First off, remember, these prayers are NOT magic formulas. They are faith-filled prayers prayed in the name of Jesus Christ to your heavenly Father in heaven, who so happens to care deeply about your children (Matthew 7:9-11).

- The prayer included in each week's blog post is to be prayed for your kid(s) at least once each day this week.
- You can kneel/sit/stand with your kid(s) and read the prayer out loud, or you can pray privately on your own for them.
- Feel free to expand on each prayer as the Holy Spirit brings to your mind the specific needs of your child. If you have a son and the week's prayer is for a girl, feel free to make the adjustment to fit their gender.
- This PRAYER RESULTS WORKSHEET is to be filled out at the beginning of the week (Day 1) so you can set some prayerful goals for what you want God to do in your kid's lives. Day 5 and Day 7 provide you with additional space to track their progress.
- The 7 Bible verses are an additional resource to help you pray the theme of each week over your kid's lives.

As you pray over your children this week, I pray that the God of hope fills you with great joy and peace as you trust in Him!

DAY 1 (MONDAY):

God alone ultimately knows the true spiritual condition of each heart, but from a human perspective, what would convince you that your kid has trusted in Jesus Christ?

E.G: "I will know and feel at peace about Jacob's faith in Jesus when he no longer reacts in explosive anger to unpleasant situations and when He actually perks up and enjoys our Bible reading time."

Write out a short prayer expressing your desire for Jesus Christ to draw your kid(s) into a saving relationship with Himself. In it, ask God to forgive their sins, reveal His great love to them, and "woo" them to faith in Jesus Christ.

DAY 5 (FRIDAY):

In what ways has your kid(s) demonstrated Christ-like behavior in the last few days?

DAY 7 (SUNDAY):

What is different today than when you began praying for your kid(s) on Monday? How has God answered your prayers for your kid(s) to trust in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior?
