HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE:

First off, remember, these prayers are NOT magic formulas. They are faith-filled prayers prayed in the name of Jesus Christ to your heavenly Father in heaven, who so happens to care deeply about your children (Matthew 7:9-11).

- The prayer included in each week's blog post is to be prayed for your kid(s) at least once each day this week.
- You can kneel/sit/stand with your kid(s) and read the prayer out loud, or you can pray privately on your own for them.
- Feel free to expand on each prayer as the Holy Spirit brings to your mind the specific needs of your child. If you have a son and the week's prayer is for a girl, feel free to make the adjustment to fit their gender.
- This PRAYER RESULTS WORKSHEET is to be filled out at the beginning of the week (Day 1) so you can set some prayerful goals for what you want God to do in your kid's lives. Day 5 and Day 7 provide you with additional space to track their progress.
- The 7 Bible verses are an additional resource to help you pray the theme of each week over your kid's lives.

As you pray over your children this week, I pray that the God of hope fills you with great joy and peace as you trust in Him!

DAY 1 (MONDAY):

What areas of your kid(s) life are they lagging behind in? (Academically? Socially? Emotional development?)

Write out a short prayer expressing your desire for Jesus Christ to help your child grow in knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. (You know best where your child needs growth, so be specific to ask God for help in those areas).

DAY 5 (FRIDAY):

In the last few days since you began praying, how have you observed an “increase” in your child’s knowledge, wisdom, and understanding?

DAY 7 (SUNDAY):

What is different today than when you began praying for your kid(s) on Monday? How has God answered your prayers for your kid(s) to have a sharper mind?
