HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE:

First off, remember, these prayers are NOT magic formulas. They are faith-filled prayers prayed in the name of Jesus Christ to your heavenly Father in heaven, who so happens to care deeply about your children (Matthew 7:9-11).

- The prayer included in each week's blog post is to be prayed for your kid(s) at least once each day this week.
- You can kneel/sit/stand with your kid(s) and read the prayer out loud, or you can pray privately on your own for them.
- Feel free to expand on each prayer as the Holy Spirit brings to your mind the specific needs of your child. If you have a son and the week's prayer is for a girl, feel free to make the adjustment to fit their gender.
- This PRAYER RESULTS WORKSHEET is to be filled out at the beginning of the week (Day 1) so you can set some prayerful goals for what you want God to do in your kid's lives. Day 5 and Day 7 provide you with additional space to track their progress.
- The 7 Bible verses are an additional resource to help you pray the theme of each week over your kid's lives.

As you pray over your children this week, I pray that the God of hope fills you with great joy and peace as you trust in Him!

DAY 1 (MONDAY):

Spend some time this week praying scripture over your kid(s). In this case, pray the words of David the psalmist (Psalm 139:13-18). Simply FILL IN your kid(s) name in the blank spots. Then pray it for them once each day this week.

PSALM 139:13-18

“For you created _____ inmost being; you knit _____ together in my _____ [insert wife’s name] womb. 14 I praise you because _____ [was] fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. 15 _____ frame was not hidden from you when [he/she] was made in the secret place, when _____ was woven together in the depths of the earth. 16 Your eyes saw _____ unformed body; all the days ordained for _____ were written in your book before one of them came to be. 17 How precious to [my children] are your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them! 18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand— when I awake, I am still with you. Amen.”

DAY 7 (SUNDAY):

Since you began praying this psalm for your kid(s), are there any noticeable differences in your child’s life? What are you observing in your child’s life today that is different than when you began praying the psalms for them on Monday?
